

5.7.20 Home Group Questions John 11: 17-44

1. Why do most people find the subject of death and mortality so difficult to talk about?
2. How does Martha's reaction in v21-24 show both confidence and disappointment in Jesus? What have been some occasions you have been disappointed in an outcome that God allowed to happen? Have there been occasions when you have asked "God, where were you?"
3. How do you react to the fact that Jesus is moved to tears at the death of a friend?
4. v25 and then the miracle of the raising of Lazarus shows that Jesus doesn't only offer sympathy, but he also offer hope in his ultimate authority over death. How is it comforting that Jesus can offer more than well- wishing or sympathy?
5. How can you live today in the light of the resurrection?