

New Horizons Spring 2026

“Christianity and other religions”

This term we are delighted to be inviting several experts working in the field of comparative religion, as we explore the relationship of Christianity to other faiths.

- |                |   |
|----------------|---|
| 15 Jan  | Christianity and Islam – Matt Vaughan, worker with Interserve in Birmingham, helping churches reach out to their Muslim neighbours.     |
| 5 Feb   | Christianity and Hinduism – Canon Dr Andrew Smith, the Church of England Birmingham’s Director of Interfaith Relations.                 |
| 19 Feb  | Christianity and Sikhism – Canon Dr Andrew Smith   |
| 5 Mar   | Christianity and the sects – Rev Steve Johnson Associate Vicar at KPC.  |
| 19 Mar  | Christianity and Judaism – Dr Ann Conway-Jones, chair of Birmingham Council of Christians and Jews and Fellow of Birmingham University. |
| 2 April | The Journey of Holy Week   |

All are welcome. Just turn up in the Lower Guild House at 10 am. Sessions last about an hour followed by refreshments. Come to as many sessions as you are able.