

PCC Nominations 2026

SARAH BROWN

Nominated by Kelly Purdy Secoded by Hannah Bull

A lifelong Christian, I relocated to Knowle in 2024 and attend services regularly. I'm passionate about KPC's mission to be a light for all people/generations. As an actuary and Girlguiding leader I bring communication, risk management and organisational skills.

ALAN REBEIRO

Nominated by Ron Mansfield Secoded by Doreen Mansfield

Here I am, in the love of Christ, in the strength of the Holy Spirit to bring glory to the Father in service to the church for freely I have received and freely I seek to give according to his will.

STUART WEBB

Nominated by High Rollinson Secoded by David Todman

Became a Christian 13/02/1977.

Served as a trustee and in leadership teams in two previous churches.

Ensure KPC is relevant to next generation by completion of FFG, clear proclamation of the gospel, and sound doctrine.

JAMES THORNE

Nominated by Julia Savage Secoded by Richard Savage

I have been a Christian all my life, although it was only when I came to KPC in 1997 that I started to develop a personal relationship with the Lord. Since then, through His Grace, I believe I have come to know Him better, blessed by the support of many from within our congregation. I am married to Mary, who is also a church member.

I am fortunate to play in the church music group, and introduced Changing Tunes to KPC, where I serve as a Trustee, as one of its emerging Missional Projects. I am currently leading fundraising as part of the For Future Generations team.

I have been on the PCC for the past 3 years and would like to remain to continue to provide this link with the Future Generations Project. I have a commercial business background and am now retired.

ROXANNE CHUNG

Nominated by Clare Fillingham Secoded by Sarah Covington

KPC has been my home church since 2022 and I am honoured to stand for PCC again for another term. Currently, I am serving in the Tech Team - mainly on the sound desk, Bumps and Babies and the Stepping Stone Committee as a representative from PCC. I shall continue to serve God through different roles in KPC where He sends me.
