

Judges 8:22-35 Gideon - The ever present danger

1. What do we learn about Gideon's character from this passage?
2. Why do you think God has given us this rather disappointing episode from Gideon's life when so much of what came before it was so encouraging and inspiring?

What does that make you think and feel about your own walk with God?

3. What are the things we have a tendency to look to in order to enhance our spiritual life?

What are we looking for/expecting when we seek after them?

4. To what extent are we in danger of focusing and relying on them rather than relying on God himself?
5. What could and will you do to get these things in a better perspective and practice in your life?
